

A Little You

Freddie & The Dreamers

There's a little true in every lie you tell me
A little good in all the bad you do
Instead of running away, listen when I say
All I want is just a little you

I've been wanting you to say the words "I love you"
A little love would make my dreams come true
Instead of running away, listen when I say
All I want is just a little you

There's nothing in this world I couldn't do
If you would only say you love me true
All I want is a little you, through the day and through the night time too
Just a little you

There's a little true in every lie you tell me
A little good in all the bad you do
Instead of running away, listen when I say
All I want is just a little you
All I want is just a little you
