Divide

P.C.P.

Separation, disconnect, all we got now
Break it down, cut it up, it's a cash cow
We all wanna cash in but division within
So close we can all drink the medicine
Walk around with no real voices
Dissolution with some real bad choices
Don't know where to begin but division within
So close you can smell the adrenaline
You can't divide, you can't divide

Sometimes in life we gotta fight
Looking for the truth in wrong and the black in white
Always knowing we're the ones you can stand beside
We're the ones you can't divide, ones you can't divide
Nothing that makes you cast aside
Whether you are right or wrong, it's not black or white
Always knowing we're the ones you can stand beside
We're the ones you can't divide

Desperation in affect, break it down now
Blue collar with a name and a face now
Underneath the skin, nowhere to begin
You better do what you're told like a gentleman
Backed up on the edge come to life now
Swing for the fence or the face somehow
Don't know where to begin but division within
So close you can smell the adrenaline
You can't divide, you can't divide
You can't divide, you can't divide

Sometimes in life we gotta fight
Looking for the truth in wrong and the black in white
Always knowing we're the ones you can stand beside
We're the ones you can't divide, ones you can't divide

Falling back this great divide
I'm falling and falling fading fast
I'm on my way to scar my face
To see me is harder through the glass

Through the glass, I'm fading fast, just make it last

Separation, disconnect, all we got now
Break it down, cut it up, it's a cash cow
We all wanna cash in but division within
So close we can all drink the medicine

Sometimes in life we gotta fight
Looking for the truth in wrong and the black in white
Never knowing if we'll win or lose the day
But we can give it our hearts and we'll find a way
Nothing that makes you cast aside
Whether you are right or wrong, it's not black or white
Always knowing we're the ones you can stand beside
We're the ones you can't divide

Sometimes in life we gotta fight
Looking for the truth in wrong and the black in white
Always knowing we're the ones you can stand beside
We're the ones you can't divide, ones you can't divide

Sometimes in life we gotta fight
Looking for the truth in wrong and the black in white
Never knowing if we'll win or lose the day
But we can give it our hearts and we'll find a way
Nothing that makes you cast aside
Whether you are right or wrong, it's not black or white
Always knowing we're the ones you can stand beside
We're the ones you can't divide
