Some strident curses come from higherWoe, pain, blood lead usWe are the nights' atrocious sons
We come from strange locus named Neverland
Atrocious demons' feed you will become
A woeful shadow without bloodCHORUS
Show me the path to show you the land
Where grimy war & pain have just begun
Oh, you strain, oh, you pain
I am thine and thou art mineNow that the order sounds cease-fire
Some warlike voices sound like choirWoe, pain, blood lead usAnd tear the lucid and silky veil of my dream
And walk on gloomy and trodden path and kill
My misty brain, lord, please reign Lord please reign and spit the poison in my veinCHORUSI am thine and thou art mine
