

Like the Rain

Aubrie Sellers

he falls right outta the blue any old time
that he wants to can't seem to catch him
but i try
never know how long he'll stay a couple of hours
or a couple of days
he floods my heart
and leaves it desert dry he comes on strong
and then he's gone
he's like the rain
a beautiful storm
that washes me
away
and i could move on
but i just sit and wait
for better weather
when everybody says he'll never change
'cause he's like the rain about the time the sun comes out i find myself lookin for clouds where's he now?
and when's he comin back?
when he's here
the thunder rolls
lightnin flashes
and the wind blows
and no clear blue sky
can move me quite like that and no flower grows
on sunshine alone
he's like the rain
a beautiful storm
and i could move on

'cause he's like the rain
a beautiful storm
