

Song for the Rich

Tristan Prettyman

Get off work about 4 o'clock and I'm late again cause you'll be here by 6:30 and we'll go looking for a close parking spot again Sitting in a room full of believers now you tell me what's wrong and what's right cause I look over at you baby, you got your good intentions focused so tight and now it hurts me so, to have to see you go to watch these drugs pull you down when there's nothing we can do and no one to get through watch you fall in and out of this mess What's wrong with a little bit of experimentation to open the eyes of the new generation well... build your world on a cocaine foundation and watch it all blow away...
And now it hurts me so, to have to see you go
to watch these drugs pull you down when there's nothing we can do and no one can get through watch you fall deeper into this mess Well I haven't see you in awhile you know I, I miss our talks I miss your smile cause the look of innocence is priceless but right now you look so lifeless
And now it hurts me so, to have to see you go to watch this song break you down and when you feel you can't get through and there's no hope left in you you know I'll be right here to help you find your way out...
And now it hurts me so to have to see you go, to watch these drugs pull you down....
