Buried Alive

Jill Phillips

I was surrounded by pain
I was buried in the darkness all around me
I was content with my chains
Just like a prisoner with no desire to break freeI needed something more
Some reason to believe life wasnt all that hopeless
So I knocked upon that door
To let Him roll away the stone and let the light inCant you see theres a change?
Its coming on stronger, I can feel it inside
Life is new, now I know
That when I go, Ill be buried aliveNow Im surrounded by peace
Now Im living with a love for those in darkness
'Cause I know the difference between
That grave I used to call my home and where my heart isCant you see theres a change?
Its coming on stronger, I can feel it inside
Life is new, now I know
That when I go, Ill be buried aliveThere is a difference inside of me
Its like Im dead to my sin
Now that salvation has set me free, oh
I can finally liveCant you see?
I can feel it inside
Life is new
Ill be buried alive, Ill be buried aliveCant you see theres a change?
Its coming on stronger, I can feel it inside
Life is new, now I know
When I go, Ill be buried alive, I'll be buried alive
Buried alive
