

New Angels Of Promise (Omikron)

David Bowie

New angels of promise (do do do do)
We despair
We are the dead dreams (oh ho ho ho)
We take the blame
Take us to the edge of time
Take us to the edge of time
We are the fabulous lovers
I'm a blind man and she's my eyes
Suspicious minds
You didn't feel us coming
In this lonely crowd, it's always time
Suspicious minds
You didn't feel us coming
In this lonely crowd, it's always time
New angels of promise (do do do do) we despise
(do do do do) Don't fall apart now
(ah ho ho ho) We are the silent ones
Take us to the edge of time
Take us to the edge of time
We are the tabular lovers
We listen to the storm
Suspicious nights
You didn't feel us coming in this lonely crowd, it's always time
Suspicious minds
You didn't feel us coming
In this lonely crowd, it's always time
New angels of promise, we despair
We are the dead dreams (ah ho ho ho)
We take the blame
Take us to the edge of time
Take us to the edge of time
We are the fabulous lovers
I am a blind man and she is my eyes
Suspicious mind
You didn't feel us coming in this lonely crowd, it's always time
Suspicious minds
You didn't feel us coming in this lonely crowd, it's always time
Suspicious minds
You didn't feel us coming in this lonely crowd, it's always time
It's always time
It's always time
It's always time
