Damn Liar

Chely Wright

Does anybody really know you?
Can anybody say they truly do?
You swear that you're a hick retriever
Your limbs are loaded down with rotten fruit
You gotta keep on spinnin' around
Never let your world's collide
'Cause if we all start talkin' there might be nowhere for you to hide
You're a damn liar
A damn liar
A damn liar
How'd you make it this far
Being a, a damn liar
You damn liar
A damn liar
That's what you are
Don't you find it all confusin'
keeping up with all the tales you tell?
You're scared to death that I'll run into the one before me you put through hell
To you we're all disposable and that's exactly what you do
You just deleted me 'cause I was on to you

You're a damn liar
A damn liar
A damn liar
How'd you make it this far
Being a, a damn liar
You damn liar
A damn liar
That's what you are
You're a damn liar
A damn liar
A damn liar
How'd you make it this far
Bein' a damn liar
Miserable liar
Damn liar
That's what you are
Damn liar
A damn liar

You're a damn liar
How'd you make it this far
Damn liar
You fuckin' liar
You're a damn liar
That's what you are
