Everything

Handsome Devil

When you speak to me, treat me like a king
'Cause you know where I'm coming from
And I'm about to come undone
I'm on a mission honey, give me some loveI want everything, everything
I want models and limousines custom built for me
I want everything, everything
I want everything, you seeI'm off to Hollywood, rolling numbers 'til I'm feeling good
Yeah, this is where the fun begins
At the penthouse with the twins, yeah
I'm on a binge committing sin after sinI want everything, everything
I want models and limousines custom built for me
I want everything, everything
I want everything, you see, so look out
GuitarI'm on a binge so honey give me some more
I want everything, everything
I want models and limousines custom built for me
I want everything, everything
I want everything, you seeThat's what you know
I want everything, everything
I want models and limousines custom built for me
I want everything, everything
I want everything, you see
