Things We Lost in the Fire

Janet Devlin

There's no smoke
Without reason
Its a sign there's something wrong
In my lungs
There's a poison
I've been breathing in to longThere's no I,
No I in we
And there's no you,
No you in me
Cause I've been burned way beyond the third degreeCause your words are like gasoline
You pour on the fire
And the bridges you burned
Led to our dreams
Its just another thing that we lostWhen the spark turned into a flame
And the flame grew much higher
And my hope, faith and every last desire
It's just another thing that we lost in the fire
Just another thing that we lostAshes fall
Just like snowflakes
That are warm against my skin
You say that we Could re-build this
Wouldnt know where to beginBut there's no snow
And theres no rain
To hide my tears
To douse these flames
Cause I've been burned way beyond the third degreeCause your words are like gasoline
You pour on the fire
And the bridges you burned
Led to our dreams
Its just another thing that we lostWhen the spark turned into a flame
And the flame grew much higher
And my hope, faith and every last desire
It's just another thing that we lost in the fire
Just another thing that we lostChasing, shadows
Going nowhere
Going nowhere
Round in, circles
Nothing left to sayYour words are like gasoline

You pour on the fire
And the bridges you burned
Led to our dreams
Its just another thing that we lostWhen the spark turned into a flame
And the flame grew much higher
And my hope, faith and every last desire
Just another thing that we lost in the fire
Just another thing that we lost
