Aurastys

It starts to tear me down destroyed by what I create
It left the nerve exposed
Feels like a lost 'cause

Frustration's all I have left it's what reduced me to this Turned me against myself
It's still a lost 'causeI can't keep doing this to myself

But it's the only way to forget who I amYour disability kept pushing me away
It went beneath what's so real to me
And threw it all away

I underestimated the lengths that you would have gone
To deny who you are
You threw it all awayI will keep doing this to myself

'Cause it's the only way to forget who I amI never wanted your help, I never needed your help
This failure has to be
All mine all mine now
I'll turn my back on myself
If it's my only way out

It can only help me if it hurtsI won't give into, I won't give into
I won't give into, I won't give into
I won't give into, I won't give into
I won't give into, I won't give into

I won't become one with your liesI never wanted your help, I never needed your help
This failure has to be
All mine all mine now
I'll turn my back on myself
If it's my only way out

I'm too tired to feel anything anywayI will keep doing this to myself
'Cause it's the only way to forget who I amI never wanted your help, I never needed your help
This failure has to be
All mine all mine now
I'll turn my back on myself
If it's my only way out

I'm too tired to feel anything anywayI have become one with your lies
I have become one with your lies
