

Three Dimensions

Something for Kate

you're not the first to think that everything has been thought before i spoke to an echo and he said "i'm not satisfied i want something more" 'cause i am bored with three dimensions i'm in love with three dimensions and if i listen to the seconds reminds me of echolalia what now, fragments are found in the mess and in the sound (repeat chorus) you're not the first to think (repeat chorus)
