

I've Been Loving You

Morgan Heritage

I didn't mean to hurt you
You know, it's just my way
Those things that I said yesterday
Were things I shouldn't say Although you're blue
Just one thing I want you to do
Just forget all those things
That I said about you 'Cause I've been loving you baby
Loving you baby for a long time
And if you go away
I just won't know what to do Yes, I've been loving you baby
Loving you baby for a long time
And you know in your heart
That I'll always worship you I couldn't bear to see you go
Oh, no, no, no, no So don't you feel sad
It's not the thing to do
Because I worry
If I know you're feeling blue Please, put your tears away
So nobody can see
'Cause the last thing I want
Is for you to cry over me 'Cause I've been loving you baby
Loving you baby for a long time
And if you go away
I just won't know what to do Yes, I've been loving you baby
Loving you baby for a long time
And you know in your heart
That I'll always worship you 'Cause I've been lovin' you baby
Lovin' you baby for a long time
And if you go away
I just won't know what to do
