You got the star that makes my heart sick
The wiles that makes my watch stick
The smile that makes my mind tick
As I'm watching, not minding
'Cause with you, I got that
You got the thorns although my skin is thick
The storms from sea hit me quick
The soul that mourns that I just can't fix
As I see you in the morning
'Cause with you, I got that
Your look, devastating
A crook that stole my will
You took me, never waiting for the kill
And I'm still breathless
You got a quarry buried beneath the bricks
A story to tease a 40s dick
To me, you're a lock that I just can't fit
When you're cheesing like Anais
'Cause with you, I got that
You got a glance that gives my lolly a lick
A romance to give my guts a kick
TNT in your kiss and I'm tied up in your wick
As you're licking wickedly
'Cause with you, I got that
