Need

The Birthday Massacre

You're a curse
I cut my lips on your diamond hands
I'm at my worst
When you're breaking my heart's remandThere's nothing to say that you don't know
You're walking away when I won't go
This isn't the first time you won't stay
This isn't the last time you will hear me sayBleed me from the heart
Need me for my heartI saw you first
You caught my eye in a sideways glance
You're making it worse
When you tell me I had my chanceSo what can I say to make it clear?
You're running away when I'm still here
This isn't the first time you won't stay
This isn't the last time you will hear me sayBleed me from the heart
Need me for my heartSay the words
Just like the song that you once wrote
It's like a curse
And I'm winding it round my throatI'd shown you the way but you won't try
You tear us apart but this won't die
This isn't the first time you won't play
This isn't the last time you will hear me sayBleed me from the heart
Need me for my heart
