

Let's Dance Raw

Shintaro Sakamoto

You can't say things like
This is all just a farce anyway
Everybody already knows that.
Let's talk more about something fun
I, with my makeup have eyes that are nicely lifeless
Let's dance the conga raw
Let's make those steps raw
Let's sway raw body to raw body forever
You can never look for affirmation that this world is hell
Since this is where we all are right now
That person, ex-girlfriend right? Yours.
If it's a delusion, it's a well made one.
I'm sure humans from long ago
In a place where there was music
Fell in love on a whim earnestly
You can't say things like
This world is just an illusion
Everyone already faintly knows
Even the sad things, everything disappeared with a yawn now smile brightly with me
Let's dance the conga raw
Let's make those steps raw
Let's sway raw body to raw body forever
Let's dance the beat raw
Let's dance and clap our hands raw
Let's sway raw body to raw body earnestly
Let's dance Let's dance raw
Let's sing Let's sing raw
Let's dance Let's dance raw
Let's sing Let's sing raw
