

She Always Gets What She Wants

Florrie

She wants to get dressed up and dance out on the edge
Knock on my door and stumble to my bed.
She loves to kick me out and pull me back again
She's got a way of messing with my head.

She knows I can't deny her soul
She holds my heart to the flame.
She smiles and I'm reminded that
I've got no one else to blame.

She doesn't know it hurts
She only knows she's beautiful
It's not her fault I tell myself
To just let go of her
Every time I say "I'll never fall again"
Well she comes around and I'm right back in the hurt

Yeah she always gets what she wants, whoa.

She needs to feel the eyes of envy on her skin
She don't ever tell me where she's been.
She hates it when I act like I don't give a damn
She turns it on and I'm right back in her hands.

She knows I can't deny her soul
She holds my heart to the flame.
She smiles and I'm reminded that
I've got no one else to blame.

She doesn't know it hurts
She only knows she's beautiful
It's not her fault I tell myself
To just let go of her
Every time I say "I'll never fall again"
Well she comes around and I'm right back in the hurt

Yeah she always gets what she wants,
She always gets what she wants!

She knows I can't deny her soul

She holds my heart to the flame.
She smiles and I'm reminded that
I've got no one else to blame.

She doesn't know it hurts
She only knows she's beautiful
It's not her fault
I tell myself to just let go!

Every time I say "I'll never fall again"
Well she comes around and I'm right back in the hurt.

Yeah she always gets what she wants
She always gets what she wants.
Yeah she always gets what she wants.
