Don't Rush Me

Jean Grae

Red roses, temptation
You make the most of a ify situation
I'm weighing my decision
Who's to say if it's love, or if it isn't?Only time will tell
Just how well, I'll get to know you
Don't mean to lead you on
But I want to take it slowly, slowlySo, don't rush me
I've made that mistake before, oh
Don't rush me
This love could be so much more
It's well worth the waiting forDesire can mean danger
I wanna lover, not another stranger
I'm saving all my passion
Who's to say if it's love, or just attraction?Only time will tell
Just how well, I'll get to know you.
Don't mean to lead you on
But I want to take it slowly, slowlySo, don't rush me
I've made that mistake before, oh
Don't rush me
This love could be so much more
It's well worth the waiting forDon't rush me
I've made that mistake before, oh
Don't rush me
This love could be so much more
It's well worth the waitingAnd my resistance is weakening, weakening
Every time we touch
'Cause baby, you've got everything, everything
That I've been dreamin' ofSo don't rush me
I've made that mistake before, oh
Don't rush me
This love could be so much more
It's well worth waitingDon't rush me
I've made that mistake before, oh no, no, no, no
Don't rush me
This love could be so much more, yeahDon't rush me
I've made that mistake before, oh
Don't rush me
I've made that mistake before, yeahDon't rush me
This love could be so much more

Don't rush me
