

Sometimes

Audrey

Sometimes I run sometimes I crawl
Sometimes I feel so strong sometimes so small
Sometimes I'm brave Sometimes I break
Sometimes my lot seems so so hard to take But there's always You Jesus wonderful You
Always right beside me to carry me through
Though I may not understand all the pain that my life has had
I know that heaven and earth may fall but there's always you Sometimes there's laughter sometimes there's tears
Sometimes the memories speak more than the years
Sometimes there's fighting Sometimes there's peace
Sometimes my weary heart is too tired to weep But there's always you Jesus wonderful you
Always right beside me to carry me through
Though I may not understand all the pain that my life has had
I know that heaven and earth may fall but there's always you Bridge
My soul is tossed on stormy seas of waves of tears and grief
But I will reach that healing shore coz I have one belief But there's always you Jesus wonderful you
Always right beside me to carry me through
Though I may not understand all the pain that my life has had
I know that heaven and earth may fall but there's always you
