

Prince of Nothing Charming (Acoustic)

Tyler Hilton

Here comes the part where you say I don't understand you
And all those little things I never get right
You talk and talk but all that chit-chat stuck in lipstick
And it's driving me crazy, baby And I got nothin' when you smile like Mona Lisa
Cause I need you, I need you tonight
If walls could talk I'd be the prince of nothing charming
And it's driving you crazy, baby (CHORUS)
You love like you won in a fight
Like you need it tonight
Baby it's beautiful
You scream like a gun in the night
Yeah, you're startin' a fight
It's like you don't know
Baby you're beautiful It's 10 to midnight and this cheap champagne is wearing off
She's tearing off her dress; God I'm such a mess
In the dark she's taking shots at my heart
She's got it to an art and this is how I fall apart (CHORUS) Girl you've got soul
I don't that you go a little crazy
Cause it's that passion I dig baby
The world won't see your glow
Cause you're the last one to know
Baby you're beautiful Here comes the part where only you can understand me
Like cigarettes and candy, baby (CHORUS) It's 10 to midnight and this cheap champagne is wearing off
It's time that I confess; God I'm such a mess
