

So So Real

Willy DeVille

I used to think
i used to be
and everything was up to me they all say we should go far
i ain't no rocket
just a shooting star
things have changed
and now i feel like i've become so unreal so, so unreal
the wolf is in and at my door she looks hungry she wants more the mail train's gone
won't come back
he took your letter
and put it in his sack
they all say that he'll go far
i ain't no rocket
just a shooting star
so so real
so so realhandsome lucifer at the door bell rings with an army of slaves carrying jewels and rings cracks his whip and says don't lose a thing while up in heaven those angels sing oh so real
so so real
this dive is open
could use some sleep
if you feel like napping round the corner down the street just ask for baby
a guy will let you in calls himself cain, only he can let you in
they all say we should go far
he ain't no rocket
just a shooting star
so so reali use to thing i knew everything you want to hear the horns you wont to wear those wings

take me down
give me a drink
give me a shot
that will make me sing
they all say that he'll go far
i ain't no rocket
oh so real
just so so real
so so real
so so realso so so real so so so real

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <https://damnllyrics.com/>