

After All Is Said And Done

Bbmak

I thought that you were workin' late
But that was when I made my first mistake
As you walked into the hall
And saw the clothes upon the floor, it was too late
She said she didn't understand
And then she cried she took the ring from off her hand
Then I knew that it was over as she turned to me and said
Our love is dead
After all is said and done, I know I'm not the only one
To have had it all and thrown it all away
We're all alone under the sun
Baby come tomorrow, are we movin' on?
I know that what I did was wrong
But you don't know what you've got until it's gone
If there were somethin' I could say to you
To make you change your mind, you know I'll try
After all is said and done, I know I'm not the only one
To have had it all and thrown it all away
I'm all alone under the sun
Baby come tomorrow, I'm not to live without you
Baby come tomorrow
'Cause all I've got is here with now, but all I wanna live without After all is said and done, I know I'm not the only one
To have had it all and thrown it all away
We're all alone under the sun
Baby come tomorrow, are we movin' on?
After all is said and done, I know I'm not the only one
To have had it all and thrown it all away
We're all alone under the sun
Baby come tomorrow, baby come tomorrow
Baby come tomorrow, are we movin' on?
