

Shotgun

Platinum Pied Pipers

Another one of those days
    Feelin like a shovel
With a lot of shit in the way
    Gonna clear me a path
    Right to the culprit
Straight to your fucked up past
    This aint about rage
    It's about disrespect
You shoulda thought about that
    Before your track went flat
    Homie what the deal?
Why you talkin' shit like that?
    I've had enough drama
    I don't need a chump
Talkin' that trash in pajamas
    Heated up like a sauna
    Time to pay the piper
I ain't givin' hope like Obama
    I'm spittin out flames
    Better hit the deck
    Ima mic check them games
You don't need a new coach
    You need a new neck
Hoarse(of course?) I connect with your throat
    Still shockin' like a heart attack
    Cuz I'm a maniac
Still runnin through the shark attack
    Without a single scratch
Still limpin' where the dog is at
    Up in my brainiac
Still Bitin while your barkin' back
    So you can shut your trap

    Check 1-2
    I ain't even through
    Givin you grief
Put another stain on your teeth
    Back up on your feet
    Call in the rescue

Better get the whole damn fleet
This attack aint stealth
It's worldwide
Homicide bad for your health what
I'm goin straight for the gut
Closin them minds
Sewin them lips straight shut
Go ahead put it on me
Show me what you got
Why you get robbed like a zombie
It's a one man army
Puff Puff give
Watch em get smoked like a cig
You heard of Freedy Kruger?
I'm kinda like that
With a red cap and a Ruger
Still slingin it to ya
Microphone hustla
Bad motha fucka
Screw ya.
Still shockin' like a heart attack
Cuz I'm a maniac
Up in my brainiac
Still Bitin while your barkin' back
