

In The Parkin' Lot

Beach Boys

We're always first to hit the lot
And wave to the man in blue, now
It's still so early in the morning
The grass is all covered with dew, now
She's turning on the radio dial
We can sit and listen for awhile
She looks so great in the morning
She doesn't even have to try, now
It's not my metal flake paint that
The guys are digging when they pass by, now
Outside it could storm
But we'll still keep warm
All the kids are splitting to their lockers
But we're still making out in the car, now
Just one long kiss and we'll be gone
'Cause two minutes, all there are, now
Here comes the news
There's no time to lose
