

I'll Be Your Girl

Kitten

When you're tired of the city lights come to me come my love and when your fractured alone at night
come to me come my love when you've sinned and no offering can bring you peace darling come to me and when your lost in the ocean's swirl bow down, salvation
I'll be your girl And take the love the mirror in your eyes I'll be there when it dies
high up above
angels in disguise
lead you to your babies bed come my love At the cross and burned by fire
come to me come my love
when the poison strangles desire I'll sing for you and kill the choir and when you're lonely you're blood's on the razor just let it bleed I'll be the paper when your lost in the devils swirl pray grace will save you I'll be your girl And take the love
this mirror in your eyes
come my love I'll be your protection I'll be yours for life
I'll be your machine gun I'll be your knife
I'll be the connection between you and God I'll be your foundation I'll be a mirage I'll be there in summer I'll be there in rain I'll be the lie that's erased from your brain I'll be there to love
I will be there to hate

I'll be the anchor that ties you to fate And take the love
this mirror in your eyes
angels in disguise
lead you to the babies bed come my love
Whatever you want me that is what I'll be
