

Hypothermia

Galactic Pegasus

I wish, right now, youâ€™d tell me how I could do better
Will my actions resound throughout the years?

An endless winter hangs over
The cold becomes the fear that Iâ€™ve been trapped inside
An abyss of frozen tears

Diamonds will move across your finger
Though I cannot do this all alone
Diamonds will move across your fingers
The feelings will linger
Right where they were

Make amends with the Winterâ€™s edge
There will be no past without some slight regret in time
Giveth and taketh
Now that weâ€™re breaking
Take me away

I'm the anchor thatâ€™s lodged within the ice
Take me
Take me away

Diamonds will move across your finger
Though I cannot do this all alone
Diamonds will move across your fingers
The feelings will linger
Right where they were

Make amends
Weâ€™re treading lightly on the diamond's edge
Iâ€™ve made mistakes but Iâ€™ve cleared them
I have cleared them up
Cleared them
So unexpected it can be and I
Have learned the secrets only months too late
But now I feel it in me
But now I see it in me
And now Iâ€™ve got to let it go

Iâ€™m the anchor thatâ€™s lodged within the ice

Take me
Take me away
I have deceived but deceived no longer, I
Show the light
Show me light

Make amends with the Winter's edge
There will be no past without some slight regret in time
Giveth and taketh
Now that we're breaking
Take me away
