We Are Scientists

All these whispers and promises
All the hints and the solid prints
All we want is to be together
All we want is to be togetherEvery subtle and stolen glance
Can't be any more obvious
All we want is to be together
All we want is to sleep togetherWe're only after one thing
We're only after one thing
We're only after one thing, ooh, oohWe're only after one thing
We're only after one thing
We're only after one thing, ooh, oohAll these raptures and etiquette
All these comforting decadence
All we want is to be together
All we want is to sleep togetherWe're only after one thing
We're only after one thing
We're only after one thing, ooh, oohWe're only after one thing
We're only after one thing
We're only after one thing, ooh, oohI'd love to know
What else we've done
Without the hope
Without the hopeWe're only after one thing
We're only after one thing
We're only after one thing
Ooh, oohWe're only after one thing
We're only after one thing
We're only after one thing
Ooh, oohWe're only after one thing
We're only after one thing, ooh
We're only after one thing
We're only after one thing, ooh
