Cinco de Mayo

Senses Fail

this town had sunk its teeth deep inside of me and now i struggle just to breathand this used to be my own safety the side walks they're torn up and the memories are grey I'd rather keep them all that waycuz i can't relive all of those nights when i was afraid that i wouldn't ever be the same when i was shaking in a cold sweat cursing all the pain I've had i can't go back to all this!
(the pain I've had)
i can't go back to all this now look at me
I'm a mess
a mess of everything that i never wanted to bei can't repeat i can't relive
all of those nights when i was
when i was shaking in a cold sweat
i can't go back to all this
(the pain I've had)
i can't go back to all this NOW
afraid that i wouldn't ever be the same
when i was shaking in a cold sweat
i can't go back to all this
(the pain I've had)
i can't go back to all this NOW!
