How to Disappear

lauri kranz

She comes like a whisper down the hall.
She acts as if it werent important.
I can hear her breathe.
Its a strange sound.
But I know its her.
She haunts me.She makes me feel like I could disappear.
She makes me feel like I could disappear.I come to meet her every day.
She drinks prayers.
I need her. Nothing else.
She wears dreams I have never seen.
I wish she would smile.
I wish she would turn around.She makes me feel like I could disappear.
She makes me feel like I could disappear.Id like to take you in my hands and want nothing else.
Id like to take you in my hands til I want nothing else.She makes me feel like I could disappear.
She makes me feel like I could disappear.
She knows how to disappear.
She makes me feel like I should disappear.
