

You Wanted to Go

The Response

I believe, I've been here before, time has left me vacant, you'd agree, we both gave it all, nothing left for taking you wanted to go to feel like a stranger
don't leave it till later everything, seems to come up short, I'm not one for faking honestly, i can't take much more, i can feel me breaking you wanted to go
don't leave it till later it's all a dream, yes I have the thought, is it worth the chasing, I believe, if you are next to me, I am not done waiting you wanted to go
don't leave it till later
