Valkyries

Blind Guardian

To the gods of the north, I pray
And raise my cup for the fallen ones
Then I cry
In Valhalla they'll singRain
Red blood keeps pouring down
Come Valkyries, join me on that final rideHere I lie bleeding
Odin, I await theeThe battle rages onNew lines they're weaving
The future, the past and the present
They're one
Reveal their mask
Show me a way to survive
This bitter warSoon it will be over
He will be the one
We'll weave inAnd terror will now rule these landsWhen the battle is lost
And the slain ones are chosen
Valkyries will guide us home
When the battle is lost
And the slain ones are chosen
Valkyries will guide us homeDestiny
A spinning wheel
The path of glory
Round and round
Come join us
On your final ride to Asgard
Let's move on fast
Allfather waits
So let's heed the final callFor now
We leave this world behind
It's overAll glory to the brave
Still blood will rain
Through storm and fire
Let war winds reign
It's the feast for the crowsFollow the light the light
Just follow the light the light
Or fade awaySoon it will be over
He will be the one
We'll weave in
And terror will now rule these landsWhen the battle is lost
And the slain ones are chosen

Valkyries will guide us home
When the battle is lost
And the slain ones are chosen
Valkyries will guide us homeWe'll keep on weaving
We're crushing through lines
With our battering swords
We're marching on Assign the brave
To survive
This bitter warSoon it will be over
He will be the one
We'll weave inAnd terror will now rule these landsWhen the battle is lost
And the slain ones are chosen
Valkyries will guide us home
When the battle is lost
And the slain ones are chosen
Valkyries will guide us home
We'll heed the final call
A call to arms
The Valkyries will guide us homeThe finally I hear them say
Carry on
For Valhalla awaits you
