My New Religion

Mr. Big

Fears is a thief in the night It leaves you hopeless I believe it dreamed, I believe in flying I am what I am, what I am And I'm sorry if I displease you What am I fighting for It's not my warTill today I was in my way Clouding up the lens Of my own visionI gave up on magic wands For the right to get it wrong And brave the world's collisions I'll turn out the crystal ball If I stumble I will crawl It's my new religionI'd rather be banging my head Even if it kills me I believe in chance I believe in crashingBetter you're true to yourself Than a perfect shadow Of somebody else An empty shellHere today I'm gonna Run my own way Somehow I don't need Your permission
