Love Changes (Everything)

Climie Fisher

I was only seventeen when she looked at me that way
Seems like yesterday
I was only foolin' 'round but she stole my heart away
I've never been the same
I felt the strangest feeling, like a raging fire it burned
She left, I cried for weeks and,
I can't forget her or the lesson that I learnedLove changes, changes everything
Love makes you fly. It can break your wings
Love changes, changes everything
Love makes the rules from fools to kings
Love changes, love changes everythingThen the years went rollin' by
I grew up and moved away
Had to earn my pay
Found another lover then
But my heart is sad to say
It only ended up the same way
And I wondered was I destined to spend my life alone
Oh girl you answered my question
This time it's working, you've given me new hopeLove changes, changes everything
Love makes you fly. It can break your wings
Love changes, changes everything
Love makes the rules from fools to kings
Love changes, love changes everything
I've seen the way love shakes ya, makes ya, breaks ya
It's got a power of its ownLove changes, changes everything
Love makes you fly it can break your wings
Love changes, changes everything
Love makes the rules from fools to kings
Love changes, love changes everything
