

100 Magic Rings

G. Love & Special Sauce

let me tell you about this girl the way I feel, it's the real deal and as a matter of course i'm not lost in love i'm not falling in love, rather i'm standing she's not demanding she acts like a woman and lets me be a man I must be in love 'cause that's how I feel butterflies in my stomach when you whisper in my ear my life's been a rollercoaster up and down could it be I found the one that makes my heart sing pound for pound.
Boom Boom she knocked me out like mancino I rubbed the bottle and I found my genie a hundred magic rings a hundred magic rings
she make me feel like I am wearing about a hundred magic rings i'm swearing my love to you and if that is a sin father forgive me what I do you see in life the games people play mind games, injustice everyday i'm so glad I found the one to take me away from the world when my day is done my fantasy is my reality that's how it's gonna be she makes me fly so free that's my philosophy everlasting love for everlasting Ga hundred magic rings
a hundred magic rings
she make me feel like I am wearing about a hundred magic rings a hundred magic rings I want to tell her all the thoughts that are running in my head sometimes she's running about a step ahead meaning love is universal this love is not blind she knows what I am thinking 'cause she can read my mind it's time to stop fooling around 'cause when she calls me by name that's a beautiful sound she lets me know that I still got game my friends don't understand how I feel but I love her just the same and i'm not ashamed to be graced by her presence you see I praise her I praise her like I praise the heavens a hundred magic rings

a hundred magic rings
about a hundred magic rings a hundred magic rings oh babe I love you so never never never want to let you go
