

Avoiding Mirrors

Asia Cruise

There goes our love in the glass broke on the floor
There goes at least a thousand pieces of love lost
My heart is buried somewhere deep in all of this debris
So out of my reach
How do you expect me to make it through the fall?
My body, my body ain't used to not being warm
If you never touch, charge it to the first degree
This is killing me
Now I'm stuck here trying to recall how I let you slip out the door
All of this bullshhh reflecting on me
Since I let you get the last words, I'll just keep the pictures
Kill-ing my head like I'm half dead
Can't stand to see myself
I'm avoiding mirrors
All I wanna do is sleep, don't wanna face reality
Since you left I'm avoiding mirrors
Ooh, you left me underneath the sheets
Ohhh-oh, Oooh-ohhh-oh, Ohhh-oh
No, I don't want to see us
I'm avoiding mirrors
As fast as you came, the quicker that you took a loss
Whatever I do take a presence of distraught
No matter what they gonna be, me is all I've....
I sing a song, I'd rather go without a piece
Now I'm stuck here trying to recall how I let you slip out the door

All of this bullshhh reflecting on me
Since I let you get the last words, I'll just keep the pictures
Kill-in my head like I'm half dead
Can't stand to see myself
I'm avoiding mirrors
All I wanna do is sleep, don't wanna face reality
Since you left I'm avoiding mirrors
Ooh, you left me underneath the sheets
Ohhh-oh, Oooh-ohhh-oh, Ohhh-oh
No, I don't want to see us
I'm avoiding mirrors
I-I-I-I-I wanna forget this
Get back to where we left

I'm hoping that time can heal us
To bring you back to my picture
Can't stand to see myself
I'm avoiding mirrors
All I wanna do is sleep, don't wanna face reality
Since you left I'm avoiding mirrors
Ooh, you left me underneath the sheets
Ohhh-oh, Oooh-ohhh-oh, Ohhh-oh
No, I don't want to see us
I'm avoiding mirrors
Ahh, ahh, yeah
Ahh, ahh, yeah
