

Forbes (feat. G-Eazy)

Borgore

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

[Verse 1: G-Eazy]

They pay me to step in the club
I blow it on strippers and drugs
Forever finessing the plug
Got rich and I learned what the difference was Looked at the top and said "Bitch I want all this"
Young with new money I'm rich and obnoxious
On multiple drugs now this shit got me neasous
A cowboy I'm reckless and lawless Look, I win the awards and I sell out my tours
I need me a Natalie Portman like Thor's
Matter of fact she's just what I'm working towards
And I got the juice like I'm hooked up on cords
Party tonight at Borgores
Don't talk to me like I'm average, bitch we're lords Look, mama I made it to Forbes
Look, mama I made it to Forbes [Interlude: G-Eazy]
It's just, things are just different now, you know? It's just... [Verse 2: G-Eazy]
And if it ain't lit I won't stick around
I'm high off some of the best shit I found
And I don't chase girls I'm just pickin' now
I guess, things are just different now
And yeah yeah she knows what I'm thinkin' now
Luckily everything's quicker now
I pour me a drink and I drink it down
Room full of boppers then I swing my dick around They say when it's rainin' it pours
I mean champagne showers of course
And my chicks way badder than yours
No, I don't fuck with average fours
I cut fast like samurai swords
That boy he just works and records Mama, I made it to Forbes
Look, mama I made it to Forbes
