

While I'm Still Here

Nine Inch Nails

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Only thing I've ever done
Ticking time is running outClosest I've ever come
Ticking time is running outOh so tired on my own
Ticking time is running outBest days I've ever known
Ticking time is running outYesterday I found out the world was ending
Yesterday I found out the world was endingA little more
Every day
Falls apart and
Slips awayI don't mind
I'm okay
Wish it didn't
Have to end this wayThese four walls are closing in Ticking time is running outOf all the things that might have been Ticking time is running out yeahWatch young love is fucking back
Ticking time is running out yeahGod forgive me if I cry
Ticking time is running outA little more
Every day
Falls apart and
Slips awayI don't mind
I'm okay
Nothing ever
Stays the sameWhile we can
Remember when
Always running
Even thenStay with me
Hold me nearAnd I'm still here
