Seven Veils

Lucie Silvas

Heaven knows it's time for us
To wake up with the sun
Like a child you kiss my eyes
The tears have come and goneAnd now I feel the mist is clearing
And all the clouds will drift away
And there's no chill in the air tonight
When we know that love is here to stayAnd now we're dancing
Like the dance of the seven veils
Every move closer till the moment
We lose our selvesIf the moon will shine for us
The stars will light the way
And your touch is like a flame to me
Burning hotter every dayAnd there's no smoke with out a fire
And there is no sleep without a dream
There's no me without you any more
'Cause heaven's where we've beenAnd now we're dancing
Like the dance of the seven veils
Every move closer till the moment
We lose our selvesSo we're here together safe and warm
Like a flower opens for the dawn
I'll give myself to you and the rhythm
We fall into, yeahNow we'reAnd now we're dancing
Like the dance of the seven veils
Every move closer till the moment
We lose our selvesAnd now we're dancing
Like the dance of the seven veils
Every move, every move closer till the moment
We lose our selvesWe lose ourselves
Till we lose ourselves
Lose ourselves
