

Final Moments

Keepsake

I see nothing
As darkness envelops meLight cannot penetrate
My reality is laid to rest
Our eyes never meet
Our eyes never meetBut I feel it's presence
A piercing stare burns though me
How long do I have to wait
Before they're taken from me?
How long do I have to wait
Before they're used to destroy me?Light cannot penetrate
My reality is laid to rest
Our eyes never meet
Our eyes never meetCan this fatal bond be dissolved
Before I'm left in ruins?
It seems so hopeless
But now at lastThe final cut has been made
My blood has been devoured
I'm reduced to nothing
Satisfied it moves on
Satisfied it moves on
