Best Days

Lincoln Brewster

I'm running a race that I'm not gonna lose
'Cause everything changed when I met You
So I'm laying all my tomorrows in Your handsI'm standing on every word You've said
I'm holding onto Your promises
And I know my hope and my future are found in YouWith everything that You've started in me
I believe that You will be faithfulAnd I receive everything that You're doing in me
And I believe that the rest of my life
Will be the best days of my lifeI'm waking to find Your mercies new I'm walking upon Your grace and truth
And I know Your Spirit will lead me on my wayI'm giving away this life I have I'll give it my all, Lord I won't hold back
'Til I stand before You in Heaven, finally homeWith everything that You've started in me
I believe that You will be faithfulAnd I receive everything that You're doing in me
And I believe that the rest of my life
Will be the best days of my lifeYou pulled me out from where I was
And You set my feet on a solid rock
You've given me a brand new song to sing
So I won't fear, You'll see me throughThe darkness is as light to You
And I know You're gonna make
The night shine like the day, and I believe itI know You're coming back for me
I'll be living for eternity
Because of what You've done for me
I know that the rest of my life
Will be the best days of my lifeI receive everything that You're doing in me
And I believe that the rest of my life
Will be the best of my lifeI know You're coming back for me
Yes, I'm living for eternity
Because of what You've done for me
Now I know that the rest of my life
Will be the best days of my life
