

Pieces

Paperwhite

Ah oh oh
Ah oh oh Did you know from the second you walked in, I wanted more
And in a minute I'll be losing all control
You keep me gave in, I'll keep you close
Time is ticking, and the current makes it hard to resist
It's un-natural of the way I am lost in this
You asked to meet me and then you insist Can't you feel it streaming across the post, it's not there yet
It pulls me forward, begging me to fall
And if it's real, will these pieces fit together?!
Will you and I collide into each other?! Earth's still shaking,
I have never crossed the lines like this before
It all on wavering as I walked across the globe
You were waiting, and I am lost. Can't you feel it streaming across the post, it's not there yet
It pulls me forward, begging me to fall
And if it's real, will these pieces fit together?!
Will you and I collide into each other?! Uuuh, tell me
Uuuh, tell me
Uuuh, show me
Uuuh, show me Uuh, tell me tonight you're still waiting?
Uuh, tell me anymore?
Uuh, show me all that I'm forgetting
Uuh, show me how you are.
Uuh, tell me all that ??
Uuh, tell me you and I would
Uuh, show me there's nothing to afraid
Uuh, show me! And if it's real, will these pieces fit together?!
Will you and I collide into each other?!
And if it's real, will these two pieces fit together?!
Will you and I collide into each other?! Uuuh, tell me
Uuuh, tell me
Uuuh, show me
Uuuh, show me
