

Prove It

Tool

Hit the road in wander mode
Inquire along the way
Savoir faire in full despair
While living day to dayMy heart is not
A cold cauldron of proof
I don't ever need to prove myself to you, noLooking back I off the tracks
More times than I recognize Mistakes are another
Opportunity to refineMy heart is not
A cold cauldron of proof
I don't ever need
To prove myself to youThere no such thing as hell
But you can make it if you try
There might come a day
When emotion can be quantifiedBut as of now there
No proof necessary
No proof necessary
No proof necessary
There's no proof necessary
It's only in your mind
Mind, mind, your mind
