I'm Alive

Sahona

I'm alive

Music and Lyrics by: Charly Sahona

I can't get away from this never ending game
Where love has been lost
In a crowd of desires
I climbed this hill and saw the sun rising
Just to find myself
And the dream stays on
As temptation goes by
Mislaid in the haze
Of love when we go blind by eagerness
I look for the one in every drop of rain
But no oneâ€™s in sight
Can't find the craze, the fire that burns
The vibes from the past have gone now with our hearts
You look for everything in every single soul
But thereâ€™s no one in sight
I can't get away from a once vibrant existence
To lift the spell of this
In a myriad of fleeting flames
Many ones will defy dependance
No more tears to preserve who we are
Live to love or love to live
Prisoner of our own contradictions
I can't get away from this never ending game
Time flies by
But it's here to help me feel I'm alive
