Beautiful Life

Corrinne May

It's in living every moment
Like it could be our last
For our hearts are restless
Till they rest in love's caressAnd the moments we remember
They interweave our hearts
Like a tapestry surrounding us
That we forget to touchIt's why we wake up every morning
It's why we seek each other's smile
It's why we know that it's all worth it
It's why we hold on, we make the sacrificeIt's in the eyes of a child
As you hold her in your arms
And your heart starts to beat once again
And your world is reborn
In the freshness of her song
Smile, it's a beautiful lifeIt's in the hope of the poor man
As he struggles to make ends meet
It's in the laughter of his children
As they play in the streetDon't need a million dollars
To raise a happy child
Just need a pair of loving arms
The time to make her smileIt's why we wake up every morning
It's why we seek each other's smile
It's why we know that it's all worth it
It's why we hold on, we make the sacrificeIt's in the tears of a friend
As you finally make amends
And your soul starts to breathe once again
And the weight of the world
Falls away with one word
Smile, it's a beautiful lifeOh woah oh oh woah oh oh
Woah oh oh woah oh oh
Woah oh ohIt's in the touch of her lips
As she leans for a kiss
And your world starts to spin once again
And two hearts become one
As a dream is begun
Smile, it's a beautiful lifeIt's a beautiful life
It's a beautiful life
It's a beautiful life
