

Recreant

Chelsea Grin

Unfaithful, backstabbing coward
I'm fucking sick of all the lies
And all the treachery
I was always by your side
And this is how you repay me
And after all these years
You fucking turned your back on me
I can't believe
I ever considered you family
I will never forget this knife
You placed in my back
Recreant, say it to my face
No more fucking games
This is where you pay
Recreant
Step the fuck back
And just bleed
You're a worthless
Gutless pig
Now you'll see that I'm not just
Something you can fucking cast aside

My whole life I stood right by your side
You fucking hypocrite
You make it seem like it was my fault
You lied
Don't forget I know exactly what you did
I'm fucking sick of all the lies
And all the treachery
I was always by your side
And this is how you repay
And after all these years
You fucking turned your back on me?
I can't believe
I ever considered you family
I will never forget this knife
You placed in my back
Recreant, say it to my face
No more fucking games

This is where you play
Recreant
You are dead to me
