

The Devil's Rejects

Rob Zombie

I am the bad one, distant and cruel one
I am the dream that, keeps you running down
With distraction, violent reaction
Scars of my actions, watch me running out
Hell doesn't want them
Hell doesn't need them
Hell doesn't love them
The devil's rejects
The devil's rejects
Yeah, I am the brains, some say insane
Blood is the rain, that's what life's about
In the great wide, head split and tongue tied
Watch the sun die, when you're running out
Hell doesn't want them
Hell doesn't need them
Hell doesn't love them

The devil's rejects
The devil's rejects
Yeah, I am the knuckle, bow down and buckle
Hold your breath, your world is running down
Live for the family, die with the family
All is the family, my gun is running out
Hell doesn't want them
Hell doesn't need them
Hell doesn't love them
This world rejects them
This world rejects them
This world rejects them
This world rejects them
The devil's rejects
The devil's rejects
