

In Shaire

Modern Talking

You're hunting me
In the night in your fantasy
It's the sign of a gypsy queen
Endless dream, you're hunting me I feel the need
I never felt love so deep
Love is so dangerous, mysterious
I try to win, baby Oh, in Shaire
You won't have my love for free
You are selling frozen tears
Journey to my heart and fears in Shaire In Shaire you will play a game with me
You are stealing memories
My heartbeat is a loving beat in Shaire In Shaire you try
Breaking the rules, make white doves cry
In Shaire I know
All your love will come and go
When I say you will take all my feelings away
In Shaire You're hunting me
Winning games of the night I see
Loving you such is such a thrill
You make me feel, you're hunting me You're holding me
I'm lost in a lonely sea
And behind your painted smile
You're a child, you try to win, baby Oh, in Shaire
You won't have my love for free
You are selling frozen tears
Journey to my heart and fears in Shaire In Shaire you will play a game with me
You are stealing memories
My heartbeat is a loving beat in Shaire In Shaire you try
Breaking the rules, make white doves cry
In Shaire I know
All your love will come and go
When I say you will take all my feelings away
In Shaire
