Hutton's Great Heat Engine

Botch

we'll never see them again i won't even try to run because it's kinda pointless here comes the sea, the sea of red it's hard to believe that our end has come oh she still erupts it's hard to believe that something so thick is so quick but it buries us by the hundreds it's so quiet here and the heat is my new friend
