

Eye of Judgement

A Telemetry

in a desert of despair she cries as time is still with thoughts of desperation she lost the will

another victim of crime
another shadow cast another hope lost in time another skeleton in your past

for yourself
let the eye of judgement answer

in a sea of sorrow
he drowns as anger builds inside through the glee of insanity he scorns at demons he can't hide

another life is lost another man over the line another not so relevant cost

for yourself

controlled by fear the lens is focused on you now - breaking you down planting the need to hide no escape - much to late actions fester all the way
