Church Bells May Ring

The Four Seasons

Church bells may sing,
And surely, darling, the angels will sing.
I'll tell you, darling,
You're the queen of my throne.
You should have known, sweetheart.
Ling a ling a ling a ling a ling ding dong,
I love you, darling, and I want you for my own.
I'll give you any, anything that I own,
You should have known sweetheart.
Hello, hello again, my friends, I hope that we will meet again,
Ling a ling a ling ling a ling a ling
Ling a ling a ling a ling a ling ding dong,
I love you, darling, and I want you for my own.
I'll give you any, anything that I own,
You should have known sweetheart.
Hello, hello again, my friends, I hope that we will meet again,
Ling a ling a ling, ling a ling a ling
Ling a ling a ling a ling a ling ding dong,
I love you, darling, and I want you for my own.
I'll give you any, anything that I own,
You should have know.
Church bells may ring
Church bells may ring
Church bells may ring
Church bells may ring
